

SMOKING JACKET WEARER SEARED

Representative Thomas Sees No Use for Special Coat.

Representative R. Y. Thomas is a foe of the smoking jacket.

He says that the man who chews tobacco needs no special coat to indicate his enjoyment and therefore sees no reason for the smoking jacket.

Here is the prominent Kentuckian's view on the smoking jacket and his idea of a good smoke. "A man who will wear a smoking jacket should pay a big tax on the entire coat. A smoking jacket is merely a fad and not a comfort or necessity. I have never yet heard of a man wearing a smoking jacket, and fully as many men chew as smoke. A smoking jacket is a useless thing anyway, though I presume some men imagine they look quite handsome and cute and distinguished in one of about the stripes, checks and colors of a shirt that a colored dude would wear to a negro picnic in Georgia.

"A man with a smoking jacket on usually goes into what he calls a den and lights a second cigar, for which maybe he paid 50 cents and thought he was getting a great bargain because he paid a high price. He puffs away and believes he is getting a fine smoke, but he is not, because he does not know what a good smoke is.

"If a man wants a good, comfortable, soul-satisfying smoke he should get a Kentucky or Missouri corn-cobs and some natural-leaf hillside tobacco and go out into the country to a log farmhouse and sit in the front yard under an old oak tree, in his shirt sleeves, with his shirt unfastened in front and his suspenders down, close by an old well of cool water with a sweep and an old, moss-covered bucket.

"There he can get the right kind of smoke, such as the denizens of crowded, profiteering cities never dreamed of in their philosophy, while with half-closed eyes he watches the curling, fragrant smoke drift away and mingle with the lazy, floating clouds while he dreams of home and heaven."

U. S. EXPORTS DURING JUNE BREAK RECORD

A remarkable jump in exports during June brought the total for the fiscal year, 1919, to more than $7,000,000,000, a new record, according to a statement issued yesterday by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce.

June exports are put at $18,000,000, which exceeds the previous high record, established in April of this year, by more than $2,000,000,000. The exports for June of last year were valued at $14,900,000.

Total exports for the fiscal year stand at $7,225,000,000, as compared with $5,920,000,000 for the fiscal year 1918. This is more than three times the exports for 1914, the last normal year. Exports since the armistice was signed in November are estimated at about $5,000,000,000.
The excess of exports over imports for the fiscal year 1919 was $1,129,000,000 against $5,000,000,000 the previous year and less than $500,000 in 1914.

30, 1919, the service declares the task
